RPL and Study Pathways

Will previous training and experience count?

Right Choice Training recognises Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) which considers the knowledge and skills you have already gained through your previous education and work history, attributing this to your enrolled qualification course. This may be through formal or informal training and can result in credits towards your qualification. If you have more than 5 years of relevant industry experience, please ask our friendly admin staff about Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) eligibility.

Note: Due to the Tax Practitioners Board's strict assessment requirements for tax agent courses, units within Taxation Law and Commercial Law are not available for recognition of prior learning (RPL).

Future education pathways

After successfully completing FNS50222 Diploma of Accounting, you may like to enrol in a FNS60222 Advanced Diploma of Accounting qualification to gain additional accounting skills.
