Course Overview

The FNS50222 Diploma of Accounting is designed for individuals seeking to build advanced accounting and taxation skills for a wide range of roles across the financial services sector and other industries.

This qualification reflects accounting job roles in financial services and other industries, including tax agents, accounts payable and accounts receivable officers, payroll service providers, and employees performing a range of accounting tasks for organisations in a range of industries.

Individuals in these roles apply solutions to a range of often complex problems, and analyse and evaluate information from a variety of sources. They apply initiative to plan, coordinate and evaluate their own work and provide guidance to others within defined guidelines.

Course Duration

The course duration is 12 months. We find students that are genuinely motivated to progress through the course, can complete the full course in less than 12 months. Option of FREE Six months extension.

Who is responsible for your training?

Right Choice Training is responsible under the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011 for the quality of the training and assessment being delivered in this course and for the issuance of all AQF certificates

RPL and Study Pathways

Will previous training and experience count?

Right Choice Training recognises Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) which considers the knowledge and skills you have already gained through your previous education and work history, attributing this to your enrolled qualification course. This may be through formal or informal training and can result in credits towards your qualification. If you have more than 5 years of relevant industry experience, please ask our friendly admin staff about Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) eligibility.

Note: Due to the Tax Practitioners Board's strict assessment requirements for tax agent courses, units within Taxation Law and Commercial Law are not available for recognition of prior learning (RPL).
